London 2010

Elephant Parade London FAQs

1. Where can I see the elephants?

A downloadable pdf version of the route map is now available from our website:

www.elephantparadelondon.org

2. Do you have an online map?

A google map has been created to plot the elephants and plan your route.

www.elephantparadelondon.org/map.html

3. Where can I buy a full sized elephant?

Please visit our online auction:

www.givinglots.co.uk/ElephantParadeLondon

All the elephants are for sale. The event will culminate with two live auctions in June and July at Chelsea Royal Hospital. If you are interested in coming to either of these events, please express your interest to georgina@elephantfamily.org and we will have more information to come.

* Please note that due to the high volume of interest, we will be unable to respond to individual emails at the moment. Rest assured that we will get in touch with you when details for the events are confirmed.

4. Do I need to buy and how can I purchase tickets to the auction/s?

Admittance is by invitation only. Please contact georgina@elephantfamily.org who will be touch.

5. Where can I buy a miniature elephant?

There are four pop-up shops located at Selfridges, 80 Regent Street, 36 Carnaby Street and Greenwich Central Market. Or alternatively, shop online at: www.elephantparadewebshop.com

6. I'm not in London. Where can I buy an elephant?

Please go to our online webshop:

www.elephantparadewebshop.com

7. I've seen an elephant damaged or vandalised and I'd like to report it.

Thanks for being on elephant alert!

Please call 0844 391 0000 and we'll get one of our Elephant Guardians on the job!

7. Do you have any volunteer opportunities? I'd love to help out.

We definitely do! If you want to be a part of the elephant sculpture repair teams, our call centre or help uninstalling on extinction night, email elly@elephantfamily.org
